

END-OF-LEVEL EVALUATION REPORT

Criteria for End-of-Level Evaluation Reports

What every report must do, what to check before it is sent, and how the performance overview is written.

1 General Notes

1 Maintain confidentiality and professionalism

Ensure that evaluation reports are handled with discretion and professionalism, respecting student privacy.

2 Use clear and concise language

Ensure that the evaluation reports are easy to understand and provide actionable feedback.

3 Do not use offensive / negative language

Use motivational text.

4 Make sure there's no contradictions

e.g. you can't say a student's attentiveness and participation have been outstanding if they're always absent.

5 Keep notes from the beginning of the level

About each student.

2 Make sure to Double-check

☐ Grammar, spelling and punctuation mistakes

- Use any grammar checker e.g. Grammarly
- Activate the auto-correction from your software to easily check your text in both languages (Arabic and English)

☐ Repetition of previous reports

☐ Mixing pronouns (he/she, her/his etc.)

☐ Referring to another student rather than the one intended (common mistake when using "copy & paste")

☐ Run-ons and comma splices

☐ Poor English

☐ Writing simple sentences only

3 Performance Overview Criteria

LENGTH

A summary of around 10-12 sentences.

COVERAGE

Include 1 or 2 sentences for each of the following areas. All areas need to be mentioned.

ORDER

As far as possible, in the same order.

Area	Examples
1 General evaluation of the student's performance	- Overall, X's performance throughout the level has been (outstanding, acceptable, moderate, impressive, fabulous, amazing, excellent, great, exceptional, unsatisfactory, poor, not up to expectations etc.) - Generally speaking, X has shown performance in this level. - While X has shown some potential, there appears to be a noticeable gap in the expected progress.
2 Attentiveness and participation	- X has shown great attention through the sessions. - X has been consistently interactive during sessions - X interacted rather positively with her peers. - X needs to pay more attention during the listening activities. - Y's shyness prevents her from being the most interactive student - X interacted poorly in breakout rooms and lost track of the task in hand. - Y doesn't ask enough questions and waits to be asked only. - X does not respond with enough English when she's requested to talk.
3 Effort & commitment	- X has shown exemplary commitment throughout the level by always turning in assignments - I want to acknowledge the outstanding effort and commitment demonstrated by X throughout the level. His consistent engagement, timely submissions, and evident enthusiasm for learning have contributed to his overall progress in the course. - X has demonstrated a lack of commitment throughout the course as he has not been regularly sending his assignments.
4 Discipline	- X follows class rules and regulations and always demonstrates a high level of respect - Y is an example of great discipline whether in classes or clubs - Y shouts their answers loudly repeatedly despite being warned. - Y speaks without permission and disrupts the class. - Y doesn't show enough respect to peers when she's engaged in pair activities.

Area	Examples
5 Learning outcomes (you can mention more than 1 example)	• X has learned how to/ to use..... well/fairly, rather well, exceptionally. • By the end of the level X has managed to
6 Reference to skills that have improved significantly	• X has managed to improve his listening well through class and homework activities that focused on listening and answering. • X has polished his writing by mastering punctuation marks. • X has worked on his reading for gist. • X has shown progress in his speaking fluency and accuracy.
7 Clubs	• X has attended the speaking club several times, and so the impact on his fluency and accuracy are clear. • Y hasn't attended the Reading Club yet; it is highly recommended that he joins • Joining the Writing Club would help Y improve at generating ideas and organizing paragraphs better. • Y missed the Debate Club and so we missed the opportunity to witness his progress in action • The Movie Club and the Reading Club would make pronouncing the /p/ and /th/ sounds much easier for Y to master. • Z's attending all clubs regularly is a must. • Seizing the opportunity of having various clubs available to practice seems quite important.
8 Recommendations / Skills that still need more work or attention	• Offer specific and actionable suggestions for improvement in each language skill area (listening, speaking, reading, writing). • Joining the class on time, keeping track of their tasks, interacting with peers more, setting quality review time regularly, studying the material before the class, reviewing the previous levels, spending more time on... • Doing the Writing Booklet activities would strengthen X's writing skills and enable her to apply what she learns during the sessions. • By investing more time and energy into attending and submitting assignments, X has the opportunity to show significant progress. • X needs to exert more effort on practicing irregular verbs • X is in need of more speaking practice.
9 Closing sentence	• Can't wait to see how X progresses in the next level! • It's been a pleasure working with such a hard-worker

4 Sample reports

A strong level

Overall, X's performance throughout the level has been great. He has been consistently interactive during sessions and has shown exemplary commitment by always working hard on his assignments and turning them in on time. He also follows class rules and regulations and always demonstrates a high level of respect.

X has fully grasped how and when to use the past perfect tense and has made notable improvement in his listening skills. His punctuation skills have also shown great progress. He has attended the speaking club several times, and so the impact on his fluency and accuracy are clear.

Moving forward, X should now focus more practicing irregular verbs. It is also highly recommended that he attends the Reading Club. Having the opportunity to attend a variety of different clubs, is a great opportunity that should be taken advantage of!

Looking forward to working with X again next month!

Below expectations

Overall, X's performance throughout the level has not been up to expectations. He has demonstrated a lack of commitment throughout the course and has not been regularly sending his assignments. While he demonstrates respectful behavior, he rarely interacts in the session activities.

Joining the class on time, keeping track of his tasks, interacting with peers more, and attending the clubs, will definitely lead to significant progress.

I look forward to seeing a positive change in his effort and involvement in the next level
